Operational Guidelines for STANDARDS AND RUBRICS FOR SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT

The Arizona Department of Education (ADE) in collaboration with focus groups including Arizona educators, the North Central Association, and the Arizona Education Association developed the Standards and Rubrics for School Improvement.

This document is intended to help schools identify the strengths and limitations of their instructional practices and organizational conditions. All Arizona schools will use this document to assess their overall performance. The document serves three primary functions: 1) as a blueprint to communicate the high expectations of the Arizona Superintendent of Public Instruction for all Arizona schools; 2) as a self-assessment tool to be used by the educational community at the local level; and 3) as an external assessment tool to be used by ADE School Improvement Teams. This document may also be used in other appropriate external assessment activities. The document is not to be used for staff evaluation. Instead, the focus is placed on assessing the effectiveness of the school for the purpose of sustained improvement.

The Standards and Rubrics for School Improvement is anchored in the scientifically research-based principles and indicators that consistently distinguish top-performing schools. The indicators are defined within the following four standards:

- Standard 1: School and District Leadership Capacity
- Standard 2: Curriculum, Instruction, and Professional Development
- Standard 3: Classroom and School Assessments
- Standard 4: School Culture, Climate, and Communication

Instructions for Using STANDARDS AND RUBRICS FOR SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT

When a standards-based school engages in the process of assessing the strengths and weaknesses of its educational program, it is vital to begin with an open mind, making no assumptions. By drawing attention to the four different standards related to improving student achievement, this document can help ensure that the assessment is thorough. The conclusions drawn from examining these standards become the foundation for a solid school improvement plan.

In order to use this document effectively, there must be an orientation to its design. The document presents one of the standards at the top of each page. The standards are then further defined by one or more indicators. To the right of each indicator statement are four performance levels (rubric score points) that describe each indicator's level of development and/or implementation using the following score points and descriptions:

- |   |                              |   |
|---|------------------------------|---|
| 3 | Exceeds the Standard         | (Exemplary level of development and/or implementation)      |
| 2 | Meets the Standard           | (Fully functioning and operational level of implementation) |
| 1 | Approaches the Standard      | (Limited development and/or partial implementation)         |
| 0 | Falls Far Below the Standard | (No evidence of development or implementation)              |

The following steps are recommended for using this document:

1. Carefully read through each standard and its related indicators before beginning the review/evaluation process.
2. Begin your review/evaluation process by reading the description cited in Level 3 – Exceeds for each indicator. Under the heading Suggested Evidence there is a list of suggested sources of documentation to be examined. Consider the recommended evidence before determining whether this description accurately describes your school.
3. If you believe that there is insufficient evidence to support an Exceeds rating as described in Level 3, read the descriptions for Levels 2, 1, and 0 to determine which of these levels most accurately describes your school.
4. Select your rating for each indicator by shading or circling the appropriate box in the rubric that best illustrates the extent to which the research-based variable is reflected in the work of your school. You also may use the attached evaluation record to document your ratings for the indicators within each standard.
5. Keep in mind that this document has been designed to facilitate a detailed analysis of your school's instructional and organizational effectiveness. The more accurate the appraisal of the school's instructional and organizational practices, the more effectively the school can strengthen the quality of its work on behalf of student learning.

For this process to yield the most valid, reliable evaluation results, it is important to involve as many individuals on a campus as possible. There are many ways to accomplish this. The following are suggestions to solicit input from the majority of staff:

1. Begin by having the campus leadership team (e.g., principal, teacher leaders, district representatives, and other stakeholders) carefully read and study the document. As a team they use steps 1-5 (previously described). This process may require several meetings in order to reach consensus on the appropriate rating for each indicator, based on available evidence.
2. Next, one or two members of the leadership team lead a similar process with only one of the four standards and one quarter of the staff. The review/evaluation process is then accomplished with all four standards.
3. The leadership team or an appointed subcommittee then reconciles the team's evaluation with the small groups' evaluations. Synthesized evaluation results are compiled and a final report is completed.
4. The final report is presented to the entire staff for their review and comments. Feedback is considered for possible revisions/edits.

The revised report is used as the basis for examining the school's existing improvement plan. If needed, a new course for improvement is charted based on this evaluation.

GRAPHIC OVERVIEW OF SYSTEMIC SCHOOLWIDE IMPROVEMENT

In this model, indicators for all four standards in the Standards and Rubrics for School Improvement are cross-referenced with the elements and/or conditions necessary for sustained school improvement.

GLOSSARY

Curriculum: an organized plan of instruction (scope and sequence) that engages students in learning the standards, concepts, and performance objectives identified at the state and local level.

Curriculum Alignment: The directness of the link among the concepts and performance objectives of the Arizona Content Standards with the local curriculum, assessment, instruction, and reporting structures. Alignment can be measured in terms of:

- Categorical Concurrence: This criterion between standards and assessment is met if the same or consistent categories of content appear in both documents (Webb, Horton, & O'Neal, 2002).
- Depth of Knowledge Consistency: This criterion between standards and assessment is met if what is elicited from students on the assessment is as demanding cognitively as what students are expected to know and do as stated in the standards.
- Level of Difficulty or Level of Sophistication: The degree to which the performance objective or concept is measured cognitively (Webb, Horton, & O'Neal, 2002).

Comprehensive Assessment System: All of the means, taken collectively, to gather information about student performance. Data from these various sources are analyzed and become the basis for decisions about programs, practices, and allocation of resources.

Formative Assessments: Ongoing assessment used to modify and improve instruction while it is in progress (e.g., informal observation, quizzes, homework, worksheets, daily assignments, and activities).

Researched-based Assessment: Assessment follows item writing rules (Haladyna, 2001); test shows validity and reliability.

Spiraling: Intentional repetition of content or skills, each time at a higher level of difficulty or complexity.

Standards-based system: Curriculum, instruction, materials, assessment, and reporting are all aimed at the same target — helping students achieve the defined standards.

Summative Assessments: Assessments used to judge the success of instruction at its completion (e.g., formal tests, final exams, final projects, term papers, etc.). The information is often used in determining a grade, placement, or promotion.
